Tool Bits

DECEMBER 2019

Greenville Tool & Die has an academic partnership with Montcalm Community College offering apprentices' courses ranging from applied algebra, geometry, trigonometry, metallurgy, welding, industrial communications, die design, and more. As long as students meet certain grade and attendance requirements tuition is paid by GTD. MCC Quality Control class with Mr. Bill Small (pictured top left) and MCC Basic Machine Operations class with Mr. Jason Barnes and our own tool and diemaker Mr. Brian Brasington (pictured top right) recently toured Greenville Tool & Die. Thank you to our tour guides Jeff Waite and Ted Murray; and our presenters Jerrad Higgins, Nick Tillottson, Jesse Playter, Travis Colter, Dwayne MacLaren, Derrick Baker, Roland Demorest, and Tony Walker.
