

FIRST ANNUAL SQUIRREL HUNT

Many Greenville Tool & Die employees participated in the 1st Annual Squirrel hunt on Saturday, January 4th. The event was a huge success including both a good turnout and a good time. A friendly competition was based on 2 person teams with the winners determined by the cumulative weight of squirrels. Congratulations 3rd place team Oscar Meyer (John Meyer & Dave Bean) pictured right with ten squirrels at 15.13 lbs., 2nd place team Flight Cancelled (Tristen Potter & Ben Crawford) with ten squirrels at 16.1 lbs., and winner of the golden squirrel 1st place team El Señor Squirrel (Dan Pitch & Neal Fisher) pictured left with ten squirrels at 17.3 lbs.

Forty-one people donated blood in the January drive. The following GTD employees have reached milestones in blood donated:

John Meyer – 1 gallon
Dave Bean – 8 gallons

These employees have recently become first time donors:

Mitch DeVries, Jack Hansing, Jeremy Landes, James Mankel, & Bill Patterson

Thank you all for your regular, kind hearted, lifesaving contributions.

"AN EMPLOYEE OWNED COMPANY"

On February 17, 2005 the employees at Greenville Tool & Die purchased the company from the trust of our late CEO and owner, Stan Ash, and his wife, Blanche. Fourteen years later GTD continues to prosper following many of the same traditions passed down from the Ash legacy.

Thank you, employee owners, for your direct investment into the success of this company.
