

MONTCALM AREA CAREER CENTER VISITS GREENVILLE TOOL & DIE

Students from the Montcalm Area Career Center visited Greenville Tool & Die on February 22nd, along with their instructors Kyle Deal (Welding) and Mike Johnson (CAD & Engineering). Thank you to our guides; Marty Bush, Brent Hoffman, Joe Hoy, Ted Murray, and our presenters; Tim Adkinson, Derrick Baker, Rich Ring, Cory Selleck, and Tony Walker for taking the time away from your busy work schedules to help students relate classroom lessons to real life applications. Special thanks to the students for your interest in the tool & die trade that we are so passionate about.

EMPLOYEE OWNED

On February 17, 2005 the employees at Greenville Tool & Die purchased the company from the trust of our late CEO and owner, Stan Ash, and his wife, Blanche. Fourteen years later GTD continues to prosper following many of the same traditions passed down from the Ash legacy. Thank you, employee owners, for your direct investment into the success of this company.

JOB SHADOWING AT GREENVILLE TOOL & DIE

CAREER SHOWCASE

On February 25th, 2019 Josh Januzelli (right), a sophomore at Greenville High School, job shadowed at Greenville Tool & Die. Program Manager Brady Paulson gave Josh a look at process engineering. Tool & Die Maker Dwayne MacLaren demonstrated simulation. Tool & Die Designer AJ Selleck (left) showed Josh our design process. Toolpath Manager Tony Walker had Josh sit in on some toolpathing. Thank you, Josh, for your interest in the challenging and rewarding career of tool & die making.

“DON’T ASKE ME WHAT I WANT TO BE UNTIL YOU SHOW ME WHAT THERE IS TO BE.”

– Anonymous Student

Career showcase is an opportunity for students and their parents to visit local businesses and explore a career in each industry. Greenville Tool & Die will host a tour of our facility on Tuesday, March 5th from 6-7:30 pm. Students will learn about careers in machining, tooling, engineering, and design. The Career Showcase also tours many more career options including education, social work, military service, auto body, marketing, healthcare, law enforcement, and more. Visit www.careershowcase.org for more information.
